SOHO REP provides radical theater makers with productions of the highest caliber and tailor-made development at key junctures in their artistic practice. The organization elevates artists as thought leaders and citizens who change the field and society. Artistic autonomy is paramount at Soho Rep; the organization encourages an unmediated connection between artists and audiences to create a springboard for transformation and rich civic life beyond the walls of its theater. Critics continue to herald Soho Rep as a go-to theater destination for new work. New York Magazine says, "this indispensable theater offers more excitement per chair than any space in town," and The New York Times says, "The downtown powerhouse... regularly outclasses the work done on many of the city's larger stages."

Soho Rep was named the "Best Theater in NYC" award by Time Out New York in their 2021 Best of the City Awards. Time Out New York wrote, "Soho Rep isn't the last word in downtown experimental theater: Better than that, it's often one of the first words, championing major voices at key points in their careers. Its astounding list of alums includes Richard Maxwell, Young Jean Lee, Adam Bock, Annie Baker, Nature Theater of Oklahoma, David Adjmi, Lucas Hnath, Branden Jacobs-Jenkins, Anne Washburn, Aleshea Harris and Jackie Sibblies Drury (whose FAIRVIEW, which premiered there, won the 2019 Pulitzer Prize). And Soho Rep's low ticket prices, including 99¢ Sundays, help keep some of the city's bravest, boldest and wildest theater within the reach of all New Yorkers."

MA-YI THEATER COMPANY is the acclaimed Off-Broadway notfor-profit organization whose primary mission is to develop and produce new and innovative plays by Asian American writers. Its numerous acclaimed productions include Mike Lew's TEENAGE DICK and BIKE AMERICA; Qui Nguyen's THE INEXPLICABLE REDEMPTION OF AGENT G and SOUL SAMURAI (with Vampire Cowboys); Hansol Jung's AMONG THE DEAD; Michi Barall's RESCUE ME; Lloyd Suh's THE CHINESE LADY; and Lonnie Carter's THE ROMANCE OF MAGNO Rubio. Through programs like the Writers Lab, May-Yi emboldens a new generation of Asian American artists to voice their experiences, while developing a steady stream of quality new works by Asian American playwrights for Ma-Yi's own performing repertory. New works developed at the Writers Lab have gone on to successful productions around the country, at such theaters as Victory Gardens, Denver Center, South Coast Repertory, Laguna Playhouse, Long Wharf Theater, Woolly Mammoth and the Actors Theatre of Louisville, to name a few. Ma-Yi's productions have earned 10 Obie Awards, 5 Henry Hewes Award nominations, an Outer Critics Circle, Lucille Lortel, and Drama Desk nomination for Best Play and the Special Drama Desk Award for "more than two decades" of excellence and for nurturing Asian-American voices in stylistically varied and engaging theater." Ma-Yi Theater is under the leadership of Producing Artistic Director Ralph B. Peña.

ACTORS' EQUITY ASSOCIATION ("Equity"), founded in 1913, is the U.S. labor union that represents more than 51,000 professional Actors and Stage Managers. Equity fosters the art of live theatre as an essential component of society and advances the careers of its members by negotiating wages, improving working conditions and providing a wide range of benefits, including health and pension plans. Actors' Equity is a member of the AFL-CIO and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. Equity is governed by its own members through an elected Council, representing principal actors, chorus actors and stage managers living in three regions: Eastern, Central and Western. Members at large participate in Equity's governance through a system of regional Boards and Committees. Equity has 28 designated area liaison cities with over 100 members each. #EquityWorks

The actors and stage manager employed in this production are members of Actor's Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers in the United States.

The Director is a member of the STAGE DIRECTORS AND CHOREOGRAPHERS SOCIETY, a national theatrical labor union.

Soho Rep provides radical theater makers with productions of the highest caliber and tailor-made development at key junctures in their artistic practice.

Just a few of the plays that have received their World or New York premiere at Soho Rep's 65-seat downtown venue and have gone onto future productions include: Aleshea Harris's Is God Is, Branden Jacobs-Jenkins' An Octoroon, Anne Washburn's 10 out of 12 and Jackie Sibblies Drury's Fairview which was also recognized with the Pulitzer Prize in Drama and moved to Berkeley Repertory Theater and Theater for a New Audience before receiving new productions across the globe including at London's Young Vic.

In March 2020, tech rehearsals were underway for the New York premiere of WOLF PLAY at Soho Rep when we had to close down the production at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic. After a two-year hibernation, Wolf Play returned to Soho Rep in February 2022 and enjoyed a spectacular seven-week extended sold-out run. TheaterMania named WOLF PLAY one of "The 10 Best Off-Broadway Shows of 2022" saying that the "emotional rollercoaster of a play" featured "one of most heartbreaking performances of the year," and The New York Times called it, "thrilling, probing and playful."

Soho Rep also commissions and develops new work in our Studio program, and we support early career artists in the Writer/ Director Lab. In 2020, we launched Project Number One as a job-creation program in response to the extreme precarity faced by freelance artists during the COVID-19 pandemic. Now, Project Number One is evolving to include ongoing staff positions for artists, significant increases to production fees and salaries, and budget transparency.

This season, all three of Soho Rep's productions are world premiere commissions: MONTAG by Kate Tarker and directed by Dustin Wills, PUBLIC OBSCENITIES written and directed by Shayok Misha Chowdhury, and THE WHITNEY ALBUM written by Jillian Walker and directed by Jenny Koons. Please visit sohorep.org to purchase tickets to our upcoming productions and to learn more about the company's nearly 50-year history as a vital civic institution.

Soho Rep's Board of Directors: Jodi Balsam, Sarah Benson, Paige Blansfield, Jon Dembrow (Chair Emeritus), Jackie Sibblies Drury, Susan Dunn (Secretary), Kenneth Ebie, Cynthia Flowers, Roxane Gay, James Gleick, Frank Holozubiec, Branden Jacobs-Jenkins, Aretha Marshall, Victoria Meakin (Chair), Zach Miller, Anne O'Grady, Meropi Peponides, Sidney Madison Prescott, Claudia Rankine, Daniel C. #### MCC BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Barbara Doran, Chair David Lloyd, Vice Chair Erik Piecuch, Treasurer

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to provoke conversations that have never happened and otherwise never would.

MCC THEATER was founded in 1986 as MANHATTAN CLASS COMPANY by a collective of young actors, writers, and directors determined to steer their own artistic development—and shake things up! That initial group included Artistic Directors Bernie Telsey, Bob LuPone and Will Cantler, since joined by Executive Director Blake West. Our increasingly expansive work continues today.

- WE PRODUCE EXCITING THEATER. We produce seasons of BOLD new plays and musicals by exceptional ARTISTS.
- WE DEVELOP NEW WORK. We develop NEW WORK by emerging and established artists through a rigorous process that encourages CREATIVE RISK-TAKING.
- WE HONOR YOUNG VOICES. Each year our education programs use the power of theater to ROUSE the imaginations of over 1200 high school STUDENTS across ALL FIVE BOROUGHS.
- WE GET PEOPLE TALKING. COLLABORATION and COMMUNITY are at the core of everything we do.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

MCC has continued to adapt and innovate to meet the ever-changing needs of our students and community, particularly over these last three years. After seamlessly transitioning to fully remote programming in March 2020, then hybrid after-school and in-school programs last year we were thrilled to be back in-person for performances of UNCENSORED, BKYC UNCENSORED and FRESHPLAY in Spring 2022.

We continue the long and valued relationships with our four partner schools: Manhattan International High School, Baruch College Campus High School, The George Washington High School Educational Campus in Manhattan, and The High School for Public Service in Brooklyn. We are committed to providing quality arts-based education because youth voices matter and creating an inclusive space where everyone's stories are heard can inspire change in ourselves and in society.

MCC THEATER's Education Programs are supported by the Axe-Houghton Foundation, The Emily Davie and Joseph S. Kornfeld Foundation, Harold J. Newman† & Ruth Newman, The Pinkerton Foundation, The Eric Rosedale Playwriting Fund, Tiger Baron Foundation, New York State Council on the Arts, and public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the city council.

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Our PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT programs invite audiences to delve deeper into our onstage work as well as build bridges across our community artistically and geographically. Connect with us and each other.

Audience members of all generations have emboldened our work with VIBRANT DISCUSSIONS, debates, and reflections that spill out of the theater and fill the streets and continue to reverberate throughout New York City and beyond.

LET'S TALK: We invite you to join our Audience Conversations taking place directly after select performances. We also host moderated TalkBacks with our cast and creative teams.

LET'S ENGAGE: Community Specific theater nights, panel discussions, and workshops open up the door to wider engagement with our work and our company.

LET'S WATCH: Open mic nights and invitations to student staged readings as well as film screenings bring audiences together in a new way to celebrate artists and artistry in a variety of formats.

Thank you to our Public Engagement partners whose collaboration makes our work possible: African Film Festival New York, Broadway Podcast Network, Developing Artists, The Mental Health Coalition, MOBI—Mobilizing Our Brothers Initiative, Muddy Paws Rescue, NYCAAC—Animal Care Centers of NYC, National Queer Theater, Walk Tall Girl Productions, and W42ST Magazine.

THE ROBERT W. WILSON MCC THEATER SPACE

Inaugurated on JAN 9, 2019, MCC's new Hell's Kitchen home, THE ROBERT W. WILSON MCC THEATER SPACE, is a state-of-the-art complex designed for us to do what we do best: shake things up. The space houses two theaters, two rehearsal studios, extensive backstage facilities, administrative offices, and ample audience amenities.

THE NEWMAN MILLS THEATER is named for Ruth & Harold† Newman and Marianne & Steve Mills. As dedicated co-chairs of The Campaign for MCC THEATER, they led a successful fundraising effort in support of MCC's education and artistic programs.

THE SUSAN & RONALD FRANKEL THEATER is named for Susan & Ronald Frankel. They have been active with the company since 2015. Susan Frankel is also an MCC THEATER Board member.

ROBERT W. WILSON was a well-known and successful investor from the mid-1960's to the mid-1980's. After retirement, he devoted his life to philanthropy. He was a transformative philanthropist, primarily funding worldwide organizations in the preservation and conservation areas. An avid New Yorker, he was also involved with a number of New York's cultural institutions. He was a major supporter of, and held leadership roles with, the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, Environmental Defense Fund, The Metropolitan Opera, the Whitney Museum, and the World Monuments Fund. In addition, he and the Trust continue to support the above institutions and The Nature Conservancy, The New York Public Library, Central Park Conservancy, BAM, and the Wildlife Conservation Society.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

MCC THEATER wants to center our event in practices rooted in fostering community. We acknowledge how the PAST and the FUTURE converge on our PRESENT. MCC'S theater home sits on the UNCEDED land of the LENAPE people. We acknowledge that this stolen land was worked on by enslaved Africans. May this living land acknowledgement—to the LENAPE, their elders past and present, and their future generations, as well as to the experience of enslaved Africans and their descendants, serve as a starting ground for change.

PRODUCER'S CIRCLE

We are so grateful to our Producer's Circle, Ballad, and Entr'acte Patron members who provide major support of our mission to provoke conversation among artists, audiences and students – at every point in the play-making process, in all of our programs. Our Producer's Circle, Ballad, and Entr'acte Patrons play a key role in developing new work for the stage and MCC's work with young artists and students.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR MCC THEATER

MCC THEATER is proud to thank everyone who has supported the Campaign for MCC THEATER. You helped make our dream of a home of our own a reality. Our new home allows us to deepen our mission and encourage greater collaboration amongst all of our artists, students, and audiences.

Special thanks to The Office of the Mayor of New York City, Eric Adams; The New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, Commissioner Tom Finkelpearl; The New York City Council, Speaker Corey Johnson; and the Office of Manhattan Borough President, President Gale Brewer for their dedication to the arts and their foundational support for this project.

THE GARY PLATTINITIATIVE FOR NEW MUSICALS

The GARY PLATT INITIATIVE FOR NEW MUSICALS supports the costs of developmental readings, workshops, and new musical productions at MCC, with the goal of inspiring new voices and adding to the American musical theater canon.

The Initiative was formed in 2019 by Julie and Marc Platt and their family to honor the memory of their uncle and great-uncle, Gary, whose lifelong love of musical theater instilled in them a passion for this unique storytelling art form.

To learn more about THE GARY PLATT MUSICAL THEATER INITIATIVE, please contact Anne Myers at (212) 727-7722 ext. 236 or amyers@mcctheater.org.
