GUADALÍS DEL CARMEN (Playwright, she/her/ella) is a playwright, screenwriter, and performer from Chicago, based in NYC. She's a writer for the first season of HBOMax's tv adaptation of Stephen King's It, Welcome to Derry, and has worked on development projects at FX and Amazon. Guadalís is an Ars Nova PlayGroup Alum, 2020 Steinberg Playwriting Award recipient, and Yale Rep Commissioned Artist. Her plays include NOT FOR SALE (UrbanTheater Company, Joseph Jefferson Award New Play Nominee 2019), MY FATHER'S KEEPER (The Kilroys Honorable Mention 2019), DAUGHTERS OF THE REBELLION (Montclair State University 2019, The Kilroys Honorable Mention 2017), A Shero's Journey or What Anacaona and Yemayá Taught Me (Yale Magazine 2019, The Parsnip Ship Podcast Season 4), BLOWOUT (Aguijón Theater 2013). BEES & HONEY was originally developed in The Sol Project's SolFest in 2018, and received additional development through LAByrinth Theater; it was also part of The Kilroys List in 2019. Guadalís was a Co-Producer of Atlantic Theater Company's African Caribbean MixFest 2021. She's the Co-Founder and Co-Artistic Director of Latinx Playwrights Circle (LPC), an organization dedicated to developing and nurturing Latinx(e) playwrights and their plays. LPC was a co-producing partner alongside WP Theater and The Sol Project for the Off Broadway production of Christin Eve Cato's SANCOCHO. Guadalís has performed in Chicago, NYC, The Repertory of St. Louis, and Actors Theater of Louisville.

MELISSA CRESPO (Director, she/her/hers) Born and raised in CT, Melissa is a Dominican, Chilean, and Puerto Rican director of new plays, musicals, and opera. She has developed work at The O'Neill, Lark Play Development Center, Playwright's Center, New Dramatists, and more. She is currently the Associate Artistic Director at Syracuse Stage where she has directed NATIVE GARDENS, I AND YOU, YOGA PLAY, and ESPEJOS: CLEAN. As a playwright, her play EGRESS, co-written with Sarah Saltwick has been produced at Salt Lake Acting Company, Amphibian Stage, and Cleveland Playhouse. Melissa received her MFA in Directing from The New School for Drama and is a Founding Editor of 3Views on Theater.

MARIBEL MARTINEZ (Johaira) is a multi-hyphenate artist, proudly Black-Latina, with Dominican and Puerto Rican roots. She's been involved with BEES & HONEY since its first staged reading at SOL Project's SOLFest in 2018, and is honored to bring Johaira to life for its world premiere. She's an Artistic Producer for the Dominican Artists Collective; she wrote and performed in DAC's "The Cooking Project," presented by New York Theatre Workshop's Artistic Instigators virtual series in 2021. She's part of The Latinx Playwrights Circle community and considers it one of her favorite artistic homes. Credits include, Off-Broadway: WILL YOU COME WITH ME? (PlayCo); JULIUS CESAR (New York Shakespeare in the Park). Select Regional Theatre:

MUSHROOM (People's Light); VANITY FAIR (Shakespeare Theatre Company, American Conservatory Theater); CHRISTMAS AT PEMBERLY (Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park); HENRY V P. 1 (Folger); BLACK JOY PROJECT (JAG). Film / Television: "EVIL" (CBS), "NEW AMSTERDAM" (ABC), "THE WATCHER" (Netflix), "SACRIFICE" (BET+), "DR. DEATH" (Peacock). MFA, UC Irvine.

XAVIER PACHECO (Manuel) has been an actor his entire life. In 2013, he won the English-Speaking-Union National Shakespeare Competition. That summer he studied at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London and played a lead role in a Public Works' production of Shakespeare in the Park, at only 16 years old. In 2015 he graduated from his performing arts high school as Valedictorian of his class. Xavier went on to receive a Bachelor of Arts degree in Theatre at Muhlenberg College. Last year he received his MFA from NYU Tisch School of the Arts Graduate Acting Program, where he was also the youngest in his class. He is excited to be making his debut with MCC. Credits include: The Public Theater: RICHARD III. Public Works: THE TEMPEST. NYU Graduate Acting: ROSENCRANTZ AND GUILDENSTERN ARE DEAD, ROMEO & JULIET. DANIEL PEGUERO (Visual Artist) is a multidisciplinary artist and designer of Dominican descent, born and raised in NYC's Washington Heights. From early on as kindergarten Danny displayed an affinity towards the visual arts. His passion carried over through his young adulthood where he was able to hone his skill into a career. After college he set his sight on the fashion design field serving as creative director for various brands like DrunknMunky, Coogi and others. On his 10th year in corporate design Danny experienced something that is common among creatives, burn-out! He lost his love for the craft. Simultaneously he was contacted by a long time friend to help with the art direction of his new restaurant. Before he knew it he was back in his roots painting and collaborating with small businesses on art direction for their spaces. After creating a local buzz as a muralist bigger brands began to take notice of his ability to add vibrant street/caribbean flavor to these spaces. Companies such as Footlocker, HBO, and Warner Bros. to name a few off his client list. Danny quoted here "Working on projects with more notable brands has been a welcome pursuit, involving more collaboration and working with other creatives, project managers and technicians is great but I'll never steer away from the small business that keeps me grounded and continues to be my main source of inspiration. I look forward to working with more small Mom and Pops in my Heights neighborhood"

MAYTE NATALIO (Specialty Choreographer) is from Queens, New York by way of her Dominican parents. Favorite Choreography credits include THE WINTER'S TALE (DTC/ Public Works), RUNAWAYS (NYU), INTO THE WOODS (Barrington Stage Company), MEASURE FOR MEASURE (The Public Theater/ Mobile Unit 2019), LOVE IN HATE NATION (Two River Theater), HAIR (The Old Globe), KISS MY AZTEC (Hartford Stage), HOW TO DANCE IN OHIO (Syracuse Stage) LA HORA SANTA written, directed and choreographed by Mayte for Ars Nova's Vision Residency. Broadway: Associate Choreographer, FOR COLORED GIRLS...And coming up is the premiere of the film Playland at the 2023 Tribeca Film Festival.

ADAM D-F. STEVENS (Emotional Support Consultant, they/them) MA, RDT. They are a Registered Drama Therapist (RDT) who works at the Hetrick-Martin Institute, a non-profit organization that serves LGBTQAI+ youth in NYC. Their role includes supporting queer youth in transforming their loss and grief into unapologetic, abundant joy and empowerment. They are alumni of Marymount Manhattan College and New York University where their areas of study included Theatre Arts and Drama Therapy, respectively. Adam serves as an adjunct faculty member in the Creative Arts Therapy Programs at Antioch University in Seattle, and New York University and Marymount Manhattan College in NYC. In 2020, they were named Artistic Director for the Collideoscope Repertory Theatre Company (CRTC) whose mission is to advance racial justice and healing through artful affinity and performance. THE SOL PROJECT is a national theater initiative dedicated to producing the work of Latiné playwrights in New York City and beyond. Founded in 2016, The Sol Project works in partnership with leading Off-Broadway and regional theaters to amplify Latiné voices and build artistic homes for artists of color. Through the writers they champion, The Sol Project aspires to create a bold, powerful, and kaleidoscopic body of work for the new American theater. The Sol Project launched with the world premiere of ALLIGATOR by Hilary Bettis (New Georges), followed by the New York premieres of SEVEN SPOTS ON THE SUN by Martín Zimmerman (Rattlestick Playwrights Theater) and OEDIPUS EL REY by Luis Alfaro (The Public Theater) in 2017. In the fall of 2018, The Sol Project partnered with Yale Repertory Theatre to produce the world premiere of EL HURACÁN by Charise Castro Smith and in early 2020, partnered with Baltimore Center Stage and The Playwrights Realm to produce the world premiere of RICHARD & JANE & DICK & SALLY by Noah Diaz. In 2022, The Sol Project is partnering with Soho Rep and MCC Theater to produce the world premieres of NOTES ON KILLING SEVEN OVERSIGHT, MANAGEMENT, AND ECONOMIC STABILITY BOARD MEMBERS by Mara Vélez Meléndez and BEES & HONEY by Guadalís Del Carmen, respectively. In addition, The Sol Project produces an annual summer play festival – SolFest – in partnership with Pregones/ Puerto Rican Traveling Theatre to seed the field with new work driven by Latiné playwrights, directors, and actors.

THE TELSEY OFFICE (Casting) With offices in both New York and Los Angeles, The Telsey Office casts for theater, film, television, and commercials. The Telsey Office is dedicated to creating safe, equitable, and anti-racist spaces through collaboration, artistry, heart, accountability, and advocacy.

ACTORS' EQUITY ASSOCIATION ("Equity"), founded in 1913, is the U.S. labor union that represents more than 51,000 professional Actors and Stage Managers. Equity fosters the art of live theatre as an essential component of society and advances the careers of its members by negotiating wages, improving working conditions and providing a wide range of benefits, including health and pension plans. Actors' Equity is a member of the AFL-CIO and is affiliated with FIA, an international organization of performing arts unions. Equity is governed by its own members through an elected Council, representing principal actors, chorus actors and stage managers living in three regions: Eastern, Central and Western. Members at large participate in Equity's governance through a system of regional Boards and Committees. Equity has 28 designated area liaison cities with over 100 members each. #EquityWorks

The actors and stage manager employed in this production are members of Actor's Equity Association, the union of professional actors and stage managers in the United States.

OUR MISSION

Our mission is to provoke conversations that have never happened and otherwise never would.

MCC THEATER was founded in 1986 as MANHATTAN CLASS COMPANY by a collective of young actors, writers, and directors determined to steer their own artistic development—and shake things up! That initial group included Artistic Directors Bernie Telsey, Bob LuPone and Will Cantler, since joined by Executive Director Blake West. Our increasingly expansive work continues today.

- WE PRODUCE EXCITING THEATER. We produce seasons of BOLD new plays and musicals by exceptional ARTISTS.
- WE DEVELOP NEW WORK. We develop NEW WORK by emerging and established artists through a rigorous process that encourages CREATIVE RISK-TAKING.
- WE HONOR YOUNG VOICES. Each year our education programs use the power of theater to ROUSE the imaginations of over 1200 high school STUDENTS across ALL FIVE BOROUGHS.
- WE GET PEOPLE TALKING. COLLABORATION and COMMUNITY are at the core of everything we do.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS

MCC has continued to adapt and innovate to meet the everchanging needs of our students and community, particularly over these last three years. After seamlessly transitioning to fully remote programming in March 2020, then hybrid after-school and inschool programs in 2021-2022, we are thrilled to be back fully inperson for performances of Performance Lab's UNCENSORED, BKYC UNCENSORED and the Playwriting Lab's FRESHPLAY FESTIVAL in Spring and Summer 2023.

We continue the long and valued relationships with our four partner schools: Manhattan International High School, Baruch College Campus High School, The George Washington High School Educational Campus in Manhattan, and The High School for Public Service in Brooklyn. We are committed to providing quality arts-based education because youth voices matter and creating an inclusive space where everyone's stories are heard can inspire change in ourselves and in society.

MCC THEATER's Education Programs are supported by the Axe-Houghton Foundation, The Emily Davie and Joseph S. Kornfeld Foundation, Harold J. Newman† & Ruth Newman, The Pinkerton Foundation, The Eric Rosedale Playwriting Fund, Tiger Baron Foundation, New York State Council on the Arts, and public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the city council.

PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT

Our PUBLIC ENGAGEMENT programs invite audiences to delve deeper into our onstage work as well as build bridges across our community artistically and geographically. Connect with us and each other.

Audience members of all generations have emboldened our work with VIBRANT DISCUSSIONS, debates, and reflections that spill out of the theater and fill the streets and continue to reverberate throughout New York City and beyond.

LET'S TALK: We invite you to join our Audience Conversations taking place directly after select performances. We also host moderated TalkBacks with our cast and creative teams.

LET'S ENGAGE: Community Specific theater nights, panel discussions, and workshops open up the door to wider engagement with our work and our company.

LET'S WATCH: Open mic nights and invitations to student staged readings as well as film screenings bring audiences together in a new way to celebrate artists and artistry in a variety of formats.

Thank you to our Public Engagement partners whose collaboration makes our work possible: Breaking the Binary Theater Festival, Broadway Advocacy Coalition, Broadway Podcast Network, Developing Artists, Epic Theater Company, INTAR Theater, The Mental Health Coalition, MOBI—Mobilizing Our Brothers Initiative, National Queer Theater, People's Theater Project, Poetic Theater Productions, Youth Design Center, Queer Art Fest

THE ROBERT W. WILSON MCC THEATER SPACE

Inaugurated on JAN 9, 2019, MCC's Hell's Kitchen home, THE ROBERT W. WILSON MCC THEATER SPACE, is a state-of-the-art complex designed for us to do what we do best: shake things up. The space houses two theaters, two rehearsal studios, extensive backstage facilities, administrative offices, and ample audience amenities.

THE NEWMAN MILLS THEATER is named for Ruth & Harold† Newman and Marianne & Steve Mills. As dedicated co-chairs of The Campaign for MCC THEATER, they led a successful fundraising effort in support of MCC's education and artistic programs.

THE SUSAN & RONALD FRANKEL THEATER is named for Susan & Ronald Frankel. They have been active with the company since 2015. Susan Frankel is also an MCC THEATER Board member.

ROBERT W. WILSON was a well-known and successful investor from the mid-1960's to the mid-1980's. After retirement, he devoted his life to philanthropy. He was a transformative philanthropist, primarily funding worldwide organizations in the preservation and conservation areas. An avid New Yorker, he was also involved with a number of New York's cultural institutions. He was a major supporter of, and held leadership roles with, the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, Environmental Defense Fund, The Metropolitan Opera, the Whitney Museum, and the World Monuments Fund. In addition, he and the Trust continue to support the above institutions and The Nature Conservancy, The New York Public Library, Central Park Conservancy, BAM, and the Wildlife Conservation Society.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

MCC THEATER wants to center our event in practices rooted in fostering community. We acknowledge how the PAST and the FUTURE converge on our PRESENT. MCC'S theater home sits on the UNCEDED land of the LENAPE people. We acknowledge that this stolen land was worked on by enslaved Africans. May this living land acknowledgement—to the LENAPE, their elders past and present, and their future generations, as well as to the experience of enslaved Africans and their descendants, serve as a starting ground for change.

ABOUT THE SOL PROJECT

The Sol Project is an Obie-award winning national theater initiative dedicated to amplifying the voices of Latiné playwrights in NYC and beyond. Founded by Jacob G. Padrón and driven by an artistic collective, The Sol Project works in partnership with leading theaters to center Latiné dramatists and nurture a growing community of Latiné theater artists. With the writers we champion, The Sol Project aspires to create a bold, timeless, and kaleidoscopic body of work for the new American theater.

The Sol Project launched in 2016 with the world premiere of ALLIGATOR by Hilary Bettis in collaboration with New Georges, followed by the New York premieres of SEVEN SPOTS ON THE SUN by Martín Zimmerman (Rattlestick Playwrights Theater) and Oedipus El Rey by Luis Alfaro (The Public Theater). In the fall of 2018, The Sol Project collaborated with Yale Repertory Theatre to produce the world premiere of EL HURACAN by Charise Castro Smith and in early 2020 partnered with Baltimore Center Stage and The Playwrights Realm to produce the world premiere of RICHARD & JANE & DICK & SALLY by Noah Diaz. In 2022, The Sol Project partnered with Soho Rep for the world premiere of NOTES ON KILLING SEVEN OVERSIGHT, MANAGEMENT AND ECONOMIC STABILITY BOARD MEMBERS by Mara Vélez Meléndez. And in spring of 2023, The Sol Project will partner with MCC Theater for the world premiere of BEES & HONEY by Guadalís Del Carmen, as well as WP Theater and Latinx Playwrights Circle for the Off-Broadway premiere of SANCOCHO by Christin Eve Cato. In addition to productions, The Sol Project advances its mission by producing a yearly new play festival, SolFest, in partnership with Pregones/Puerto Rican Traveling Theater, while also supporting writers through readings, workshops, a podcast (SolTalk), and ongoing symposia. In 2023, The Sol Project was awarded an Obie Grant, Off-Broadway's highest honor, for their unprecedented championing and support of Latiné voices in the theater and in recognition of outstanding achievement in Off-Broadway and Off-Off-Broadway theater during the 2020-2022 season.

The artistic collective includes Adriana Gaviria (Co-Artistic Director), Rebecca Martínez, David Mendizábal, Jacob G. Padrón (Co-Artistic Director), Julian Ramirez, and Laurie Woolery. George Strus is the Artistic Producer. Isabel Pask is the Producing Associate. Brian Herrera is the Resident Scholar. Stephanie Ybarra is the Resident Dramaturg. Kaelani Burja is our Student Intern and SolFest Dramaturg. For more information, visit solproject.org.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR MCC THEATER

MCC THEATER is proud to thank everyone who has supported the Campaign for MCC THEATER. You helped make our dream of a home of our own a reality. Our new home allows us to deepen our mission and encourage greater collaboration amongst all of our artists, students, and audiences.

Special thanks to The Office of the Mayor of New York City, Eric Adams; The New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, Commissioner Laurie Cumbo; The New York City Council, Speaker Adrienne Adams; and the Office of Manhattan Borough President, President Mark D. Levine, for their dedication to the arts and their foundational support for this project.

THE GARY PLATT INITIATIVE FOR NEW MUSICALS

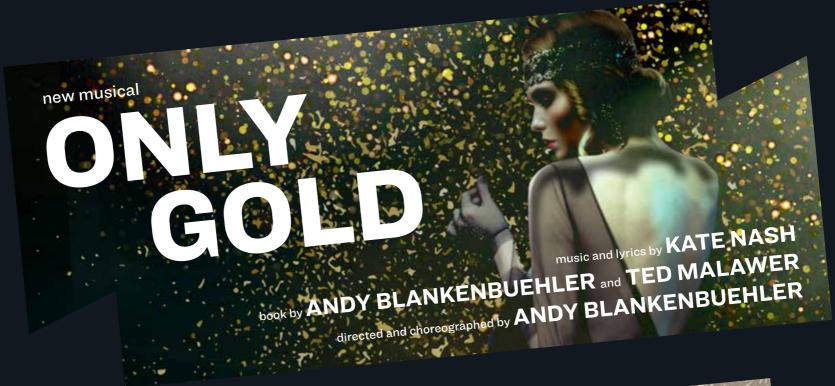

The GARY PLATT INITIATIVE FOR NEW MUSICALS supports the costs of developmental readings, workshops, and new musical productions at MCC, with the goal of inspiring new voices and adding to the American musical theater canon.

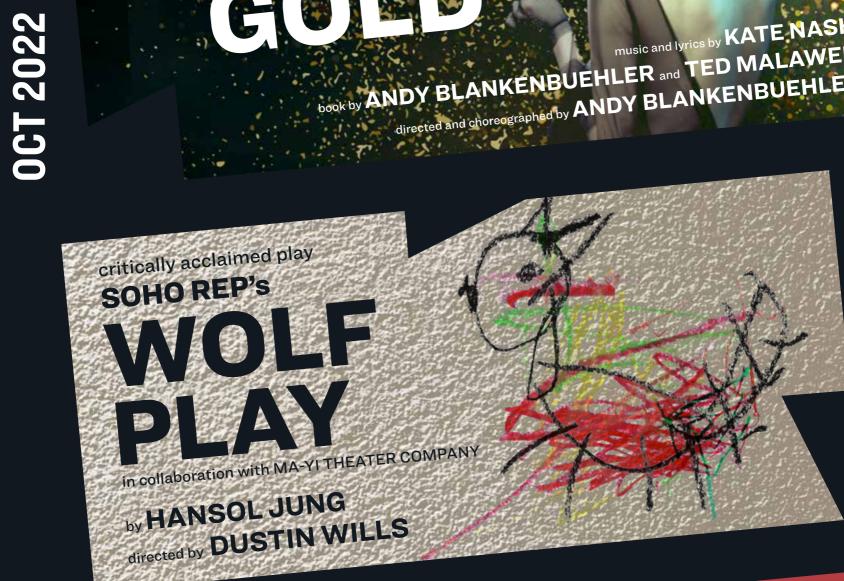

The Initiative was formed in 2019 by Julie and Marc Platt and their family to honor the memory of their uncle and great-uncle, Gary, whose lifelong love of musical theater instilled in them a passion for this unique storytelling art form.

To learn more about THE GARY PLATT MUSICAL THEATER INITIATIVE, please contact Anne Myers at (212) 727-7722 ext. 236 or amyers@mcctheater.org.
