As Gavin discovers in WALK ON THROUGH, The Met is way up on E 82nd, so we decided to bring some of The Met down to us! Even if you're a museum novice, stop by for an art class taught by a teaching artist from The Met at MCC Theater.

Join Diep Tran and Brittani Samuel for a conversation on Theater Journalism, Criticism, and Advocacy. We'll discuss the different types of press, the importance and need for more diverse voices, and how publications have become integral to theater's ecosystem.

Fact vs. Fiction Game & Community Night

In the spirit of THE CONNECTOR, teams will battle in our twist on a trivia night with knowledge of pop culture, history, and current events to sort out real and fake news stories and ethics of storytelling.
